

Risk Analysis

This product has been in continual use since 1985 without complaint or adverse effects.

Warnings are given that it should not be used with needles

It should be used with care with pacemakers

February 1997

The upgrade does not change the safety or functionality of the product.

November 14, 1999