Hi,

We have missed a Medieval order from August (attached), they no longer require all the items, they would only like the 4x T1 (0110051) sensors to go with their next shipment.

Please can we process this.

Thank you

Dear Ryan,

We only need the 4 pieces of code VI0110051, the rest you can delete.

As it is also a small amount of goods and with a low value it is better to wait for our next order and combine it with that one in order to reduce the fixed costs of shipping.

Thank you.

Kind regards.

Dear Andrea

I am really sorry, we did not have any back orders showing for you, but I have managed to find your order after trawling through our main email system. I fear your email may have gone into our spam folder and not sent on to the individuals that would process it.

Please can you confirm if the attached order is correct and if you still need all the items or some of the items?

I am again very sorry for the inconvenience this may have caused.

Best regards

Ryan

Dear Andrea

Thank you very much for your order. We do not currently have the R-24MED sensors available, Teledyne are having some component supply issues and we are not sure when these sensors are going to become available again. However, we do have an alternative sensor:

Viamed/Envitec R-49V - 0110049 = EUR €36 each EXW

Please can you let me know if you would like to cancel the R-24MED, change them to R-49V or wait for them to become available?

We will wait for your response, I am sorry for the inconvenience.

Best regards

Ryan
