Dear Zoey,

Last year we purchased some oxygen analyzers model AX300.

This time we would like to purchase a different model and see how it will sell. I looked at your catalogue and noted that you supply analyzers from other manufacturers, such as maxtec, Honeywell among others.

Would you please send me your price list for oxygen analyzers so that we can decide which to buy. We are looking for a budget oxygen analyzer that will be affordable to our biomedical customers.
