Hi Ryan,

please treat my email as an order and if available add another 10 sensors (60 pieces of R-22AV in total), and proceed with the shipment please.

Thank you in advance,

Best regards,

John Antasouras

Hi John

Thank you very much and all the very best to you too.

We currently have 50 x sensors spare that we can take from stock. Please note that the pricing is about to change, we are just in negotiations with Teledyne, so I would advise you to place the order straight away. Or should we treat your email as your order?

Best regards

Ryan
