Hello Michael,

As I told you, the two T-7V sensor you sent me about two month ago (serial numbers V101554, V101555) are not working.

I the past we supplied them T-7 model, not T-7V, but Ryan say there is no different between the two models.

I will send you back those two sensors, but I want to ask if you can send me new two unit already with my order, but to be sure on the model, this is the Analyzer they are using it for:
