Good morning,

The proforma invoice is valid until February 27th. I can of course issue a new proforma invoice at any time.

Regarding bank charges, if you agree to pay all bank charges at your end, I can remove them. We would let you know if we still incurred any bank charges upon receipt of payment. Would you like me to remove the bank charges?

Many thanks.

Dear Kate,

Good day!

Thank you for your proforma invoice.

Until when do we have to pay this invoice amount?

Your proforma invoice has Bank Charges (USD 25).

We have to pay our bank charge here in Korea and also additional bank charge for the intermediate bank.

Does your bank charges (USD25) mean this intermediate bank charge?

Look forward to your reply.

Thank you.

Good day!

Attached, please find our first order for your oxygen monitor MySignO 1 unit.

Send me your proforma invoice including the payment terms.

And, when you ship them from UK, let me know your estimated freight cost for DHL, FedEx or UPS. Then, we will decide.

If it's reasonable, we'd like to pay it by your invoice.

If it's expensive, we'd like to get them by DHL freight collect.

Look forward to your reply.
