Dear Diamond &amp; Vagelis

We are looking into lead times for your order. There have been some delays in obtaining some components which has delayed PCB production. Unfortunately we are not going to be able to deliver the complete order in the 1st week of April.

We have approximately 40x VM-2160 we can supply from stock, the balance of 20+ are not likely to be ready until May.

I am very sorry for the inconvenience and I will await your reply.

Best regards
Ryan
