Dear Kate,

We did not see your last e-mail. I'm sorry for my late reply.

Please, send the order without the missing sensor 0110416 MAX-16 Oxygen Sensor.

You can send the missing part with our next order.

Best regards,

Good afternoon,

Thank you for your email. Unfortunately, I have just learned that we have an issue with the existing stock of and the lead time will now be approximately 6-8 weeks. I am sorry to give you this disappointing news.

We can offer a lower cost alternative: part number 0110045 - R45V which is €32 each. I have attached a data sheet.

If you would like me to amend your order, please let me know. Then we could ship both orders together.

We would of course take the difference in price from your next order ($55.20 - $32 = $23.20).

Many thanks.

Kind regards

Kate Griffiths

Good morning Petko,

I hope you are well.

This email is to update you regarding the availability of the R-24MED from your order 20220516.

The estimated date for this stock to become available has passed and we have been unable to obtain a lead time for the R-24MED.

We can offer an alternative sensor, the R-49V, part number 0110049, I have attached a specification sheet.

You had asked for the R-24MED to be shipped with your next order. As I am unable to say when stock will become available, would you like me to change your order to 5 x 0110049 (these cost €36 each) or are you happy to wait and look at the stock situation when you are ready to place your next order?

I await your reply. I apologise for any inconvenience this may cause.

Many thanks.
