Hi Carl,

It looks like a shipment containing these sensors left the factory today and we are expecting it to arrive on Tuesday of next week.

We should have a couple of hundred units available but it might still be prudent to get an order to us as soon as possible if you need some.

Best Regards,

Hello Steve,

How is your stock situation/availability with regards to the R-17-A-LVG sensors (grey units) ?

Last time we corresponded you anticipated 6 weeks minimum expected delivery.

I look forward to hearing from you.
