Dear Piotr

Thank you for your email.

I'm afraid that we do not have any free stock of the R-47V (0110047) at the moment, we estimate to receive some more stock by June 2023.

Please can you confirm if the 10 x R-49V (0110049) stated in your email are an additional 10 units to be added to your order. We have 10 reserved for you at the moment. We are due stock early June 2023.

Please also find attached a copy of your order for E1/140423 that we have on our system, last updated on 14/04/2023.

This order is on hold at the moment, due to your Euro account being overdue.

Kind Regards
Cathy Green
