Hi Frederic,

I understand the confusion, we had not received your order CF00000160, I will add it to our system now.

I am so sorry for the mix-up, I can see that you do not have the orders on our system that I mentioned, I was looking at the wrong customer. It is entirely my error.

I will add the two orders to the system now. Are you happy to accept the prices as follows:

1114005 - $45.54 and 1114006 - $43.50

Would you like these two orders combined into one order with the PO reference CF00000160/CF00000164.

Again, please accept my apologies.

Kind regards

Kate Griffiths

Hello Kate,

Thanks for your warning, I cannot find this 9th june order

In our system we have :

- CF00000160 (21 units altogether) – initiated 12th june 2023, emailed 21th june 2023
- CF00000164 (50 units) – initiated 22th june 2023, emailed 22th june 2023

I am not aware of any other remaining order, if the number is CF00000023, then it should be a very old order (2021 ?)

Could you tell me the number of order (ours) that you have in your system or ideally send the document back to me, so that I can make an inquiry ?

I attached the orders we placed this week again, just to ease the job...

Good afternoon Frederic,

Thank you for your order.

We have two other orders on the system for you:

CF23-3164 - 4 x 0014850 and 3 x 0014752 (our ref CVM143929) (June 9th)

CF23-3182 - 4 x 0014850 (our ref CVM144047) (June 16th)

You have asked us to ship the orders above together. Part number 0014752 will be ready next week, so we will be able to ship your order late next week.

For this new order, am I ok to add it to CF23-3182?

Many thanks.

Kind regards

Kate Griffiths
