the client wants to cancell the order due to the long delivery time.

(and another with the outstanding items)

so we must receive what ever you can.

Because we will have to pay customs twice is it possible you ask if you can make us any special discount ,just for this time....

Thank you Catherine, I have added 1 x 0110453 to your order and updated the insurance slightly to 14.73 (as it is 1% of the value of the goods). The weights and dimensions have not been affected enough for me to change the cost of the carriage.

Kind regards
