Hi Aqib,

Hello Adil

Good morning

Thank you for your proforma request.

Please see below for your attached proforma invoice detailing the price and product you require including shipping costs.

Can you please check and see if all details are correct.

If you are happy to proceed please make payment for the amount so we can convert this to a order and get it dispatched.

I do need to advise you though we are currently out of stock of the Oxygen analyser and will order stock once you have made payment for this proforma.

If you require any further assistance, please just ask.

Kind regards
