Hi Steve,

Hope you are well.

Sorry for the delay but please find attached another PO for some cells.

Thanks in advance and I look forward to hearing from you.

Best regards,

Nicky

Hi Nicky

Currently 4 / 5 weeks, but that can change as we are coming up to peak time.

Hi Steve,

Thanks for your e-mail, I hope you are well.

I would say we will be requiring another batch of cells before too long, please can you let me know your current lead time on new orders?

Thanks in advance.

Best regards,

Nicky

Hi Nicky

We shipped you a batch of 200 oxygen sensors on the 10th January. I am not pushing for an order, but historically you process an order approximately every 2-3 months. With this in mind, do you think that you will require another batch say in April?
