Dear Aqib,

Yes we duly accept the correct price, that is 50.80$

Please be informed that we have duly taken the new price into consideration. The right total price is indicated at the bottom of the order with the amount in the right currency, that is 2041.35$. This price is calculated with the new price 50.80$.

The issue is that our system does not extract the price in the right currency at the level of the unit. This is only calculated globally, that is the whole amount of the order.

Therefore the price of 47.14 is the euro price and corresponds to 50.80 in dollars.

Please consider only the price mentioned at the bottom of the page, the price in $.

Thank you for your confirmation delivery date.

Kind regards

Sylvie VIRAPIN
