Might be worth a chat with Ryan. There might be another company we can ship to that's not on Iraq

Hi - I spoke to Ryan about this and he said we can sell to them and have them pay via PayPal like last time? Are you okay with that? I was just about to put the Proforma on the system, and noticed another memo on their account saying they owe us £40 - the account is in USD, so should I convert £40 to dollars and add that to their total?
