Sagar Risk Management

YOUR ONLINE SOLUTION TO MANAGING BUSINESS RISK

As a business owner in the UK you know the amount of valuable time and energy you spend on administration and process to ensure you remain up to speed with UK & EU regulation law.

Just count the hours you spend in a year focusing on staff related issues such as health and safety and human resources, or even just keeping up with latest employment law.

What would that number look like
- would it be hours, days
or even weeks?

Don't let managing workplace safety overwhelm you...

What would a fully functional risk management and HR team cost the average small business in a world where regulatory and compliance costs are only going to increase?

What if we told you that with our Online Risk Management tool you could have access to a comprehensive risk management facility delivering health and safety advice, human resources, unlimited access to our 'Ask the Expert' service, alerts and updates on current and future legislation plus more for as little as £60 a year (incl. VAT).

With access to our innovative Online Risk Management portal you, your business can benefit from all of the above and more, whilst also having an expert on the end of the line to answer any specific questions you may have.

We'd like to introduce you to Changes to Health & Safety legislation are placing an ever increasing burden on business owners like you. For many, keeping up is just too much.

As an employer, do you know your legal responsibilities for workplace safety?
Can you be sure you have taken every step to avoid accidents occurring?

Could your business survive a hefty fine?

And we have not even mentioned Employment Law yet...

The Sagar Risk Management portal will provide you with the tools you need to avoid falling foul of the law

Don't let staff disputes keep you up at night

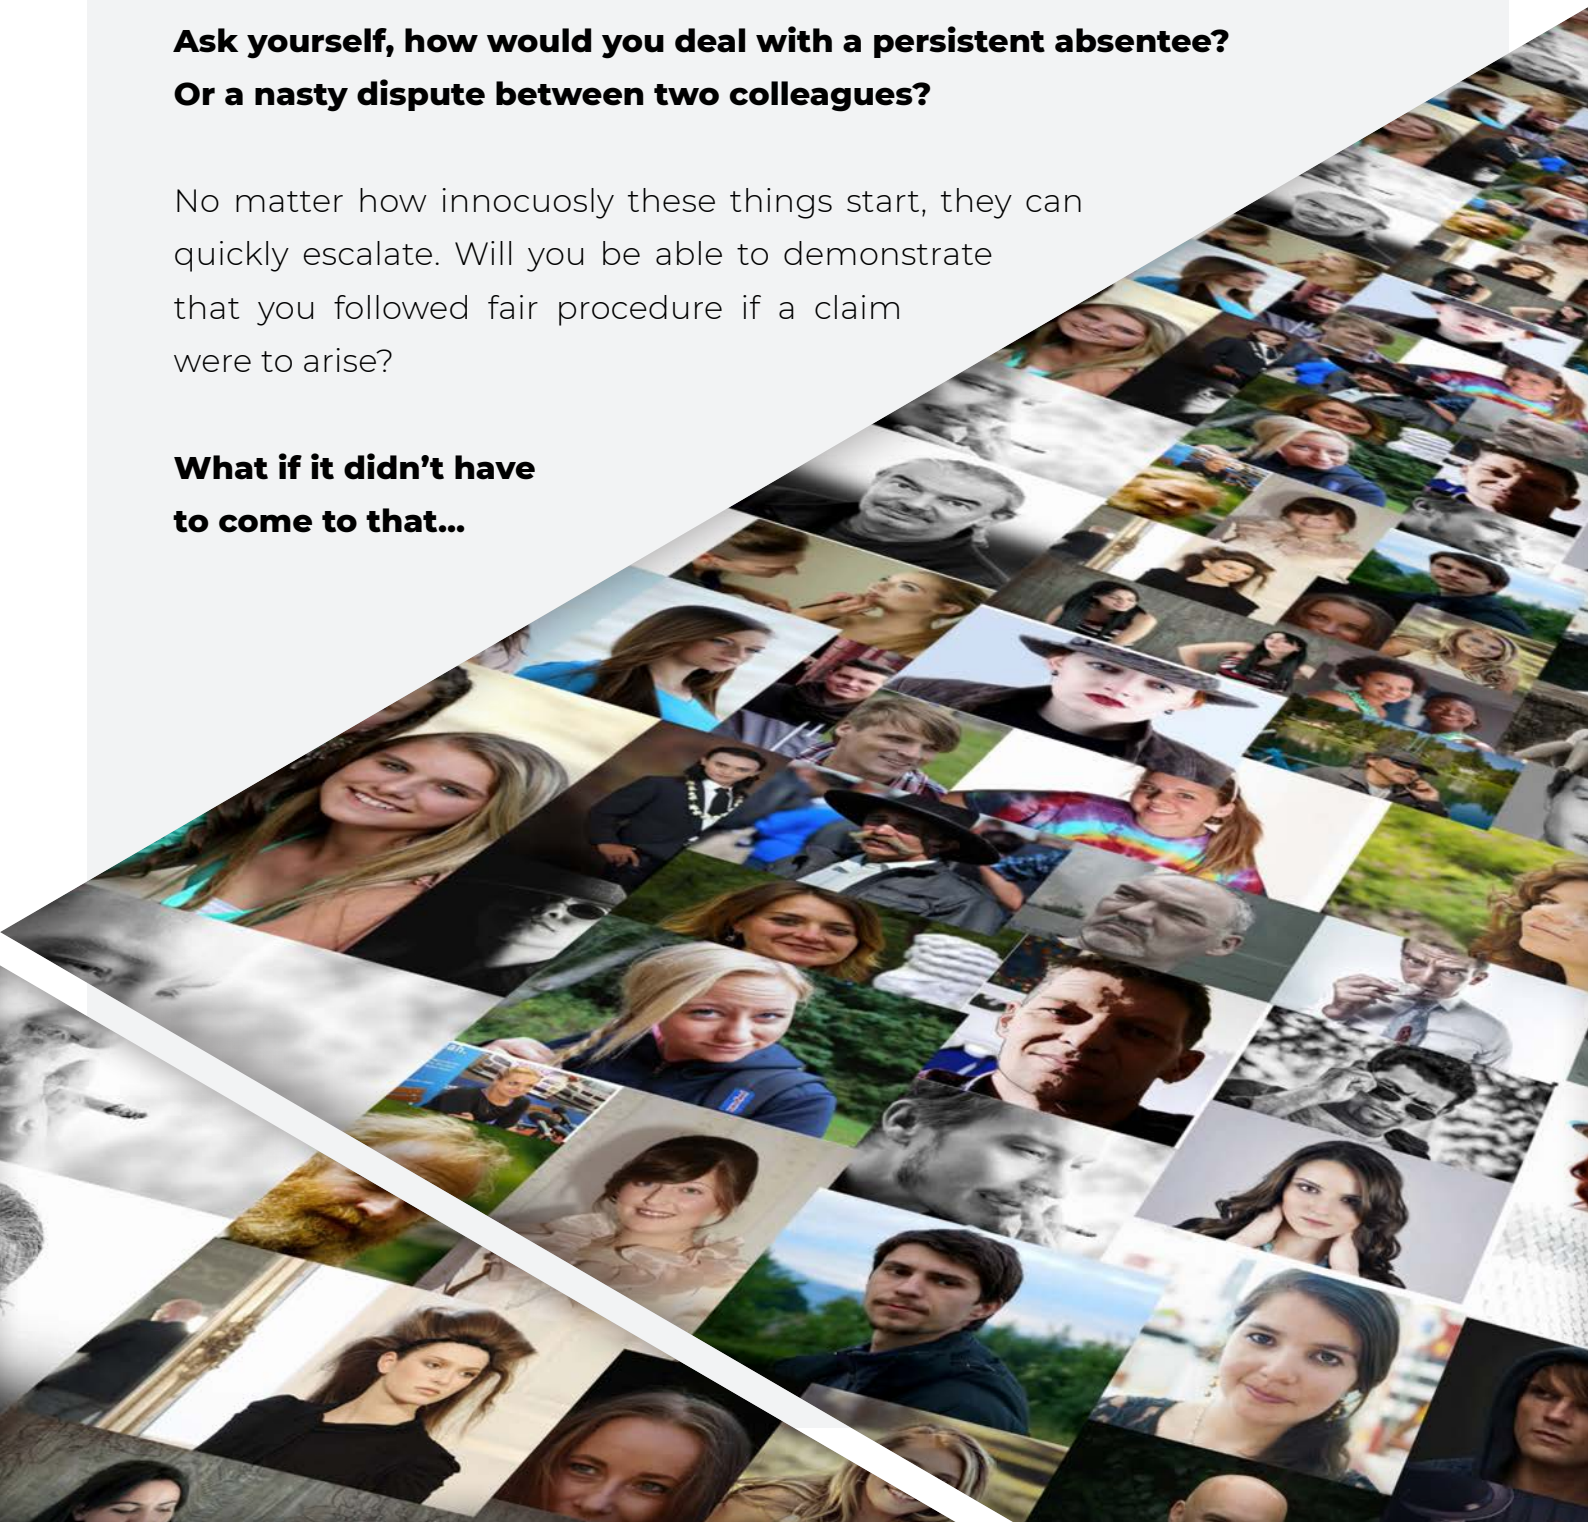

We might not want to acknowledge it, but unfortunately at some point when running a business, you may be faced with an unhappy employee.

Employee disputes are always likely to be uncomfortable to deal with, but can you be sure uncomfortable will not turn into catastrophic?

Ask yourself, how would you deal with a persistent absentee?
Or a nasty dispute between two colleagues?

No matter how innocuously these things start, they can quickly escalate. Will you be able to demonstrate that you followed fair procedure if a claim were to arise?

What if it didn't have to come to that...

Employment disputes & Workplace accidents

Employment disputes & Workplace accidents can damage your reputation, affect staff morale, and in the worst cases, incur crippling costs.

As an employer, you must be able to demonstrate you put your staff first when it comes to safety and employment practices or you risk harsh penalties.

Our Online Risk Management portal offers around the clock access to the support and information you need to manage workplace safety and staff employment in a way that is not only fair but seen to be fair.

Here are just some of the tools that will be available to you.
