Hi Steven

Thank you very much for your order.

Unfortunately we have a problem with the production of VN202 which is likely to take a few months to resolve. We currently only have the Manual switch off version available from stock.

I am very sorry for the inconvenience, please can you let me know which of the following you would prefer:

1. Switch your order for 2x VN202 to the manual version
2. Cancel the VN202 from your order
3. Switch the VN202 to TEK-OX

I look forward to your reply.

Best regards

Ryan
