Ahmed my colleague will give you our company details and address for your records.

FYI the person above is a friend who is travelling out here on 16th September, I assume the delivery will be only a few days or at least less than a week after payment?

All the best,

Thank you Luke

There will be a GBP £10 delivery charge, but we will also need to add UK VAT (20%) if the goods are being delivered to a UK address.

It has been a long time since you last ordered, so I need to set you up on our new system, please can you confirm if the billing address below is correct and send me the complete UK delivery address?

Thank you, Ryan

Ryan I've just also seen the Tek-Ox that you sell - £125 each including the box etc? Seems very good value. Let's also have 4 of those to the order please and I'll try them out on the boats. Auto switch off please.
