Hi Steve,

Many thanks for getting back to me so quickly, If you could send me a formal quotation for 12 it would be much appreciated.

The Viamed branded sensors will be fine, It will be a one off order as we are moving to the new Lowenstein Vents hopefully before March 2025, so just need them to tie us over.

Kind Regards,

Steve

Hi Steve,

I'm contacting you following an email sent to me by Mark Radbourne at Loewenstein, who advised that you may be interested in oxygen sensors for the Acutronic Fabian.

We have a Viamed branded compatible sensor available as follows:

p/n 0110047 - Oxygen sensor R-47V

1-off: £75.00+VAT

2-off: £71.25+VAT

3-10: £67.50+VAT

11+: £63.75+VAT

Carriage: FOC

Availability: ex-stock

Alternatively, we can supply the Envitec branded OOM204, which I believe might be the original sensor when the device is supplied from new. We have not yet begun stocking these as customers so far have all opted for the Viamed equivalent, but if required, we can obtain them:

p/n 0110582 Oxygen sensor OOM204

1-off: £78.00+VAT

2-off: £74.10+VAT

3-10: £70.20+VAT

11+: £66.30+VAT

Carriage: FOC

Availability: currently not stocked, lead-time on first order 4-6 weeks but once we have begun a stock-holding, these will be ex-stock.

If you need a formal quotation, please let me know.

Best regards,

Steve Hardaker
