Microstim DB3 – Supramaximal Nerve Stimulator

Dear John

The Microstim DB3 was produced by HTI (Healthcare Technology International), which is a subsidiary of Automatic Manufacturing Ltd. who have several manufacturing sites in mainland China.

Hong Kong head office:

15/F., Block B, Veristrong Industrial Centre,
36 Au Pui Wan Street,
Fotan, Hong Kong

When we tried to order another batch they said that they we no longer able to manufacture for us. To move forward it was decided to work with a project engineer based in Hong Kong, who could assist with the product transfer to another manufacturer. Wayne Chan who used to be a product development engineer for Healthcare Technology seemed to be the logical choice to assist with the project transfer:

- 1) Conduct quality audit at Healthcare Technology and Automatic Manufacturing. Part of this involved retrieval of the BOM and technical files, quality plan and equipment status.
- 2) Source and obtain quotes from alternative manufacturers.
- 3) Assist with the project transfer to the new manufacturer.
