Hi Ashleen

I will resend my earlier reply

Yes, of course we can supply these boxes. Do you want them shipping separately or including in with your next batch of sensors?

The boxes as supplied are plain white. We have a variety of wrap around labels that we use for our own applications.

Hi Steve

I hope you are well. I understand that Beth was enquiring about some oxygen sensor boxes similar to the ones you send the 'R' sensors to us in.

I believe it is

Also in the image there is a logo, do the ones you send us come with this or are they plain white?

I look forward to your response 😊

Kind Regards,

Ashleen 😊
