Hi Francis

I hope this email finds you well and all the very wishes for the new year.

I am pleased to inform you that production of the VN202 has resumed and we now have stock available. You currently have 2x VN202 on back order with us. Are you still happy to proceed with the order? And if so, would you like to add any other items to the order?

I look forward to hearing from you.

Best regards
Ryan
