Hi

Airmail (Tracked & Signed service) would be £20

To be honest we have almost stopped using airmail, as it seems to take a long time, sometimes 4+ weeks. If you are not in a hurry, then it could be feasible.

I will await your reply.

Best regards

Ryan

Hi Keith

We have taken a more accurate look at the costs of carriage.

The sensors are normally individually boxed, but we can reduce the cost by packing the sensors together without their individual boxes if you wish (the sensors would still be in their original sealed bags:

UPS with the sensors in individual boxes = £62

UPS with the sensors bulk packed = £45

Please let me know what you would prefer.

Best regards

Ryan
