Hi Steve

thanks for the reply

does not sound reassuring

at the moment we counted on the 600pc badge and were considering releasing on top of that the 200 pc emergency stock please lets discuss when possible so we can make a plan

Hi Pieter

I'm away from the office until Monday and will get back to you then, at the very latest.

The emergency batch of 200 sensors should have been shipped to you.

Are you in the office next week? I would like to phone to discuss options for future purchase orders.

Steve

Hi Steve,

Would like to check when the next badge of oxygen sensors could ship?

Thx

Pieter
