Hi Tracy,

The manufacture dates are as follows:

R-23V - March 2025
UFO 130-2 - April 2025

I am still trying to find out the lead time for the remaining UFOs.

Kind regards

Kate Griffiths

Good morning Tracy,

We are still awaiting stock of the UFOs.

Our warehouse team have asked me to see if you would like the R-23V sensors to be shipped to you yet (20250123001-2)? That order says to wait and ship with the UFOs. We could also ship 21 UFOs to you with this order?

Are you referring to the 30 sensors on your PO
20250318001 or another 30?

We expect stock to become available late April, but of course we cannot say if these will all be sold to other customers in the meantime.

Good morning Tracy,

Thank you for your order.

Please see attached order confirmation.

I have added notes to your order that you would like this one and 20250123001-2 to be shipped together at the end of May. I have used the date of 27th May (after UK bank holiday).

Also our system shows that the UFO sensors need to be boxed and with the 2025 date. (Unboxed sensors from the other order).

Kind regards
