Dear Kate,

thanks for information, but I decided to look for another device instead, since there is quite poor spare parts supply in Europe for maxtec.

Regards

Paul

Good morning Paul,

Thank you for your email.

Please could I check your requirements with you?

R125P02-013 is a MaxO2 A SCUBA Oxygen analyzer, is that correct? If so, I may need to refer you to our sister company - Vandagraph.

Many thanks.

Kind regards

Kate Griffiths
