Dear Alex,

Thank you for your email.

Please find attached a Calibration Certificate for the Foetal Heart Simulator which you ordered in May 2014 (serial number: PR01743A10).

Unfortunately the NIST Traceability Certificate is not something we can provide.

Dear Alex,

The revised cost for shipment using Philippines Airlines will be $407.39. Please can you let me know if you're happy for me to update the Proforma with this information?

Please see response from Aramex regarding not including the invoice: "We can send the goods forward without an invoice, however we will require an invoice to prepare a customs entry".

Would this be okay?

Kind regards
