Hi Ryan,

The customer is happy to continue with the Teledyne T-7 sensors so we'd like to order x3 please. I have made the customer aware of the lead time.

Thanks!

Hi Beth

The T-7V is no longer available, we can still supply the original Teledyne T-7, but it is quite expensive and it is not available from stock.

The estimated lead time would be mid to late September.

T-7 = GBP £60 each EXW

We sell very few of these, as the monitors that tend to use them are well over 20 years old.

Please let me know how you would like to proceed?

Best regards

Ryan
