Dear Kate,

Thanks for your quick response. Kindly confirm this order and dispatch through Jambo Cargo as usual. Proof of export will be emailed when goods arrive as we have always done so that VAT is exempted.

We will email to you the serial number of the defective blender to enable processing of our request for Quotation for MAXTEC 2 Blender.

Kind Regards,

Good morning William,

Thank you for your order.

Please see attached quotation as your account is a credit account. If you are happy with it I can change it to a confirmed order.

Are you able to email me the proof of export later so we can continue with your orders as VAT exempt?

I look forward to hearing from you.

I will ask a colleague about the mother board. Do you have the serial number for the device? I can see it will be FL75633001 or FL75633002.

Many thanks.

Kind regards

Kate Griffiths
