Dear Ommair

The only difference is the additional first line, Cuffas Lea House, does this need removing?

Kind regards

Hi Ryan,

Thanks for getting back to me. Sure ,we would like to get these calibrated and returned on early lead time if possible. Not sure how we went about the process if you are able to send a quotation, I can forward to my finance department and get a PO over.

In the meantime, can I get an address where I need to post this equipment to?

Dear Ommair

I am very sorry for the delay in my reply, I have just returned from annual leave and I have had a backlog to deal with.

The cost is £45 each EXW and we would need approximately 5-10 working days to undertake the work. If you need them in a hurry I can speak with our technicians and see if we can push them through for you.

Best regards
Ryan
