Dear Ms. Griffiths,

Good afternoon,

Thank you for your follow-up. Yes, the quotation QVM159402 is still required. The procurement process was under consideration at our institute, and we are interested in ordering the required unit/quantity.

Additionally, since we are unable to make a direct bank transfer, it would be greatly appreciated if the payment could be processed through a secure payment link or alternate online method.

Thank you for your patience and continued support.

Kind regards,

Sourabh Anand
