Dear Kate,

Following up on our previous correspondence regarding order OS56802, and given your earlier confirmation that the sensors are currently in stock, I would like to inquire whether it might be possible to organize the collection/shipment of the items earlier than the requested date of November 28th.

If the stock is readily available, we would appreciate it if the dispatch could be expedited. Please let us know if an earlier date for pickup is feasible on your end.

Thank you for your assistance with this request.

Mira,

Поздрави / Kind Regards
