Dear Ryan,

After our phone conversation, please be so kind to cancel the items 0015011 and 0015012 (P.O. 3152) due to your delivery difficulties. Our company will inform all of our clients about the unavailability of single-use SpO2 sensors in the future. If anything changes on your side, please let us know as well.

For the time being, we would like you to send us a revised order confirmation without the above-mentioned codes.

It is also important to inform us if it is possible to send us the good before 15/12/25.

Please be so kind to confirm

Best Regards,

Diamond Cortessis
