I regards to that order number, I do not see that on my list of requisitions.

But looking at the below emails I can see that the item I was originally asking for is now added to the catalogue and has been ordered/ delivered.

So you can cancel the open order - 363030714

Hi Katie,

I must have missed that it was unavailable when dealing with the email, my apologies.

The one that is being suggested isn't suitable for what we require.

What I am actually looking for is Nonin Onyx II 9550 Finger Pulse Oximeter is this something you supply?

I was suggested these other types as they were already within the oracle catalogue but with no picture it is hard to know what you are purchasing.
