Hi

SN has ordered some new labels (x50) that are to be sent to Justec free of charge. I expect we will need to put some sort of order on for them, although they are unlike I would add a price for customs of 0.01 each and we need to have the duties billed to Viamed.

Sorry, Ryan

Hello Ryan,

The production label on the sensor is 2025-10 and the serial number of 50pcs R-23V is V125841 to V125890.

Please send the correct production label to us for replacement.

Thanks

Best Regards,
 Tracy

Hi Tracy

I am very sorry, I am not sure how that has happened, but we will look into it.

Please can you confirm if this affects the entire batch of 50 sensors?

If we send you the correct labels for the packet, would you be happy to apply them over the top of the existing label?

Best regards
 Ryan

Hello Kate,

Please see the pictures below:

We have received 50pcs R-23V sensors you sent us on 22 October 2025.

And we found that the production date labels on the packaging are inconsistent. Could you please tell how to resolve this.

Thanks for your help.

Good afternoon Tracy,

Thank you for your order.

As this is for three different shipping dates, I have added three orders: 20250904001-1, 20250904001-2 and 20250904001-3.

Our commercial director has agreed to the special price of $32 each for part number 0110023 - R-23V (unboxed) as long as these order are shipped in November 2025 and January 2026.

I have added a note for the UFO 130-2 sensors to be shipped WITH BOXES and not until we hear from you.

Please see order confirmations attached.

Kind regards
