Hi Hanson

The cuffs arrived yesterday evening to my home.
Should we add them to your next order?

Ryan,

yes, the sizes are ok:

by the way,
you can ask if they have double-tube cuffs with same connectors available Part numbers:

ok, for the GE cuffs,
yes, it is for GE V100,
but if they could offer a picture of the cuff connector for confirmation, that will be perfect.

Hi Hanson

- 1) No problem
- 2) We can add them to your next order and invoice, if this works for you

Please see an email I received regarding the order. Please can you confirm everything is okay before I proceed.

Best regards
Ryan

Hi Ryan,

Thank you for placing the Web Order below. Before I process your order, I want to confirm this is for use with the V100 / Portrait Vital Signs Monitor manufactured by GE. The cuffs will not be compatible with another device.

Also, please ensure it is the Neonatal Set you require.

Should you have any questions, please let me know. Once you confirm the above, I will process your order.

Kind regards,
Eve

A white cable is shown with its packaging. The packaging is white with a large red number '5' and a red dinosaur logo. Text on the packaging includes 'CRITIKON', 'HIFI SPT-NG-00', 'SPT-004', '8-15 CM', and 'MIL CO'. The cable is coiled and partially visible through the clear plastic window of the packaging.

A photograph of a cardboard box containing a GE water filter. The box is open, showing the filter's packaging which features the GE logo and a picture of the filter. The box is sitting on a desk with a calculator and some papers nearby.
