Good morning Sam,

Thank you for your email. I can see from the Royal Mail website (tracking number NZ139453509GB) that your parcel has been delayed. This is what it says:

Pending

We're holding this item at Loughborough DO. We've received a request not to deliver mail to the property your item is addressed to today. We'll attempt delivery as per the instructions we've received, which is usually on the next working day.

Tracking number:
NZ139453509GB

Service used:
Royal Mail Signed For™

I am hopeful that your parcel will be with you in the next couple of days. Please could you let me know if it does not arrive?

Many thanks.

Kind regards

Hi Kate,

Thank you. When I click on the tracking it says that was on 24th December? I thought that this may have been delivered by now?

Hi Sam,

Thank you for your email. I have checked with my manager and he has asked for me to issue a replacement order to you. I will arrange for that today and we will ship it as soon as possible.

It looks like the parcel is stuck with Royal Mail, with no real explanation. If the parcel does ever arrive with you, please let me know.

We will email a tracking number when the replacement leaves our building.

Kind regards

Kate Griffiths
