Dear Paloma

We would not normally supply sample sensors free of charge, but I would be happy to offer you a better price for an initial evaluation order at our 100+ price of €23.90 each EXW

Best regards

Ryan

Dear Paloma

Thank you very much for your email.

Please find our price list attached. Based on an order of 20 the price would be EUR €26.50 each EXW, but if you can order in batches of 25+, then the price is reduced to €23.85

I look forward to hearing from you.

Best regards

Ryan

Dear Ryan,

Regarding your presentation of last April, we would be interesting in your oxygen sensors. Could you send me offer for a batch of 20 units model R-22AVG? The annual consumption is around 100 units.

I look forward to hearing from you,

Thank you and best regards,

Paloma Cuenca-Romero

Asunto: Oxygen Sensors for use in Emissions Testing

Dear Sir or Madam

I hope this message finds you well.

My name is Ryan, and I'm reaching out from Viamed, a UK-based manufacturer and supplier of high-quality oxygen sensors for automotive emissions testing equipment.

We currently work with a range of clients, including emissions testing machine manufacturers, service providers, and equipment distributors. Our sensors are recognised for their accuracy, durability, and value—making them ideal for both new installations and servicing existing machines.

I understand your company is involved in the manufacture of emissions testing equipment, and we would be very interested in exploring how we might support your requirements.

Please find some brief information attached. I would be happy to provide further product details, specifications, or samples for evaluation, should that be of interest.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Kind regards

Ryan
