Hi, Consumeda have done their usual mind changing and have only paid €3.31 for shipping of an order (this was the difference paid to have 2 orders shipped together). To make it simpler, can I say he will owe us the difference please? I will check with Cathy tomorrow if you say it is ok. Thank you when you say owe us do you mean get it now from him or owe it later i trust whatever you want just checking cos one would need memos etc

I plan to get it from him on next order (which he has placed now) when I know the difference. Thank you x
