Good Day Micheal,

Our priority was R-33VAN-2. I will still proceed with the other two. But will take delivery combined with VAN-2. Is that Okay. My project starts by 5th March. Is there a possibility that VAN-2 can be ready before that.

Regards,
Hari

Good morning,

my apologies for not getting back to you sooner I wanted to be certain of the facts before i responded,

We don't have the stock of the R-33VAN-2 and unfortunately I am unable to provide a lead time as to when we will have these available.

as soon as i have a lead time as to when they will become available i will let you know,

Would you still like to proceed with an order for the R-33VAN and R-22VAN?

Kind regards
Michael

Dear Hari

I hope this finds you well.

We have been short of the component sensors for use in building the R-33VAN-2 and R-33VAN sensors, but I am pleased to inform you that I have some stock that is allocated to another client that I can utilise for your order.
