Hello

Good afternoon

I have spoken to the dispatch team and they have advised we can ship the 120 pcs of the UFO 130-2 firstly but won't be until early next week.

The repairs team have also advised they are wanting to return the 4 x sensors from SRS69281.

Can you advise the best delivery address for the return of the sensors from this repair.

Hello

Good morning

This email is in regards to your order for the UFO PCB boards which should have arrived to us last week and still have not.

We are in talk with the supplier as there has been some sort of fault with the component so they have not sent them.

I will have an update for you on when they should be arriving soon.

Sorry for the inconvenience caused by this.

Thank you for ordering the GE Neo-Snap bp cuffs.

I have added these into one combined order alongside the UFO 130-2 Amplifier PCB, yes this has increased the shipping costs but we have avoided 2 x bank charges and 2 x insurance costs.

If I did it as a separate order it would cost you double insurance and bank charges.

I hope this is ok with yourself.
