Hi Ryan,

Can we increase the SO to 80 for April, May, June, July & August. We will decide in August if we need to alter again. I will amend the PO and re send.

Many Thanks

Hi Robert

I think Kate is being cautiously conservative, which I agree is the best approach, as goods can be delayed in transit.

We have chased production, and the latest update is that we expect to receive 4420815 in the last week of March. Provided that there are no unforeseen delays, we should be able to ship them within the same week. We will continue to chase Blueprint to ensure they keep to their schedule and to notify us immediately if anything changes.

Kind regards
Ryan
