Dear Mei Huang

Please accept my reply on Kate's behalf, as she is currently away from the office.

The current distributor price is:

0111261 MaxO2+AE Oxygen analyser = USD $337.40

We do not have any plans to change the price; however, I would recommend checking with us before making an offer to your clients, as Maxtec often provides only a small amount of notice for any updates.

Best regards

Ryan

Good morning,

Please accept my apologies for the delay in my reply, I was on leave last week. I hope you received my out of office reply.

Please see attached quotation, valid for 30 days. You will see that I have added $5 bank charges as that is what it cost us to receive your payment last time.

Many thanks.

Kind regards
