Dear Kate

Good morning

Thank you for your reply.

Regarding R-22AV, our stock is almost empty, so we are in urgent need.

For CVM162204, I assume the mid-May lead time is because it is waiting for the R-17AH to be completed. If the R-22AV is already finished or can be ready earlier, could you please ship the R-22AV first without waiting for the completion of the R-17AH?

Alternatively, if you could expedite the production or shipment for our latest order (CVM162902), that would also be a great help.

As long as we can receive some R-22AV units sooner through either of these options, we will be satisfied.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Best regards,
