Good morning Tracy,

Thank you for your reply.

Please could you provide a shipment date so I can provide a reply re manufacture dates?

The sensors we have in stock are dated July 2026. As you know this sensor is popular and the stock changes on a daily basis. I can only assume that the sensors we are expecting soon are dated the same (July 2026).

Many thanks.

Kind regards

Our customer is very particular about the date, so we need to know the production date of the products before we can confirm the shipping schedule.

Could you please let us know the production date of the current stock?

Thank you for your support.

Good morning Tracy,

Thank you for your order.

Please see order confirmation attached. Carriage will be added at time of invoice as usual.

It is difficult to give sensor dates codes when I do not know when this order would be shipped.

We are expecting more stock of this sensor soon.

Kind regards
