We would like to inform you that, due to ongoing cost pressures arising from increased fuel, energy and freight costs, together with continued disruption across global supply chains, a surcharge of 3.5% will be applied to all new quotations and orders with immediate effect. This surcharge will be shown as a separate line item and reflects current market conditions, including increased costs associated with shipping, logistics and raw material supply. Please note that this is measure will be kept under regular review, with the intention of removing it once market conditions stabilise.					Total
