Good morning Catrin,

We are still using these sensors; can you please advise on the supply of 6 R17 sensors.

Regards

Hi Mark,

Further to your previous orders, I just wanted to check whether you still have an ongoing requirement for R-17MED oxygen sensors.

You have previously purchased these regularly from Viamed, but we have not received an order for this sensor during 2026.

Please let me know if you require current pricing or availability information. Alternatively, if your requirements have changed, please let me know and I shall update our records accordingly

Kind regards

Catrin Hollings
