Good afternoon,

Can we please get the items below out to the customer? The Bodyjet Evo is coming from Germany direct to them but lets get the other items out before they decide to cancel it all together. I always thought that when someone purchases an EVO they automatically get a box of applicators. This was not the case with Dr MediSpa, so I am now not sure. Please make sure we send him only 2.

Please send me confirmation once this has been done. Lets get this to them ASAP!
