Data Protection Impact assessment (DPIA)

A Data Protection Impact assessment (DPIA) is an assessment to check that there will be no issue when a change to the system takes place. If making changes or adding new systems you must carry out a DPIA. It is like a risk assessment for GDPR. Add the assessment as an internal document to show you have done one. If there is a breach ICO will request this as part of their investigation.